SS Feelin Special aka Faith 5 yr old, Liver Chestnut/Dark Bay Mare

Faith is very level headed and very talented to say the least. She is caddy and quick with a good handle and a great pedigree. She is clocking in the 2D times now without being pushed and has a lot more hp to give. Faith has been hauled extensively and I love personally know she's got what it take to be a 1D mare. She is utd with teeth, shots, worming, etc. She has me in the top 5 open 3D right now from her earlier stages of training but is moving and excelling to the top 2D. She is by far one of the nicest horses I have ever had the pleasure to work/train. Her temperament is what makes her exactly what she is "Awesome"!! She needs the right person to bond and become part of her TEAM. Very very nice mare. $7,500.000 OBO

Pedigree: Dam: Oil in the Glass/ Speical Feelins / Hateful Hattie / Special Effort
Pedigree: Sire: Hoof Hard Ed/ Smooth and Swift / Jet Smooth / Valentine Surprise

This would make you a fine horse and have you bringing home 1D checks in no time.

VF GAS UP THE RED 6 yr old, Sorrel Mare

Dot, is a 6 y/o AQHA mare out of one of the biggest barrel sires in the country. She has phenomenal bloodlines and has proven herself in the barrel pen. She is the 2009 Tour of The Champions Futurity winner. She also contributed to my Youth 1D Champion title in 2009. Dot also qualified me back to the finals at out state show 2011 (one of the largest added money shows around) Both go rounds in the 2D and then ran in the 1D in the finals. I hauled her to youth world 2011 and had smoking consistent runs both days but fell in the cracks between 1 and 2D. Her sire is Designer Red and her dam is Gas Up The Jet which goes directly to Sticks and Stones, Easy Jet, and Tiny's Gay. This mare is built to run and has all the speed. She is a big built mare but can turn and run in a big or small pen. She is well worth the price and has a good mind & a light mouth. She trail rides and has NO bad habits in or around the arena or in the barn. You won't find another barrel horse with this potential, experience, and these blood lines for this price. She is easy to ride and responds well to light hands but would need an experienced rider as she is FAST. She is in great condition and is ridden consistently. 100% sound. Only Serious Inquiries Please! Call 813-924-9720.
